NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant and is convenient safe and secure

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use

(DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN)

EASTERN DATES TO FEBRUARY 24

Congressional

WASHINGTON, Feb 23 In the House the galleries and corridors were thronged. The Whittemore case was immediately taken up. Logan who had the floor, yielded to Whittemore, who in a firm voice commenced to read his defence, but he was interrupted by the Speaker who announced the receipt of a communication from the gentleman and considered it to be his duty to lay it before the House. Whittemore desired to recall it until he had finished his remarks, but the Speaker declined to allow it, and the paper was read. It was a note dated yesterday, and addressed to the Speaker covering copies of telegrams from Whittemore to the Governor of South Carolina tendering his resignation, and the telegraphic acceptance by the Governor, with a request to lay the communication before the House and inform them that he was no longer a member. Whittemore rose, when the Speaker stated that it was not the province of the Speaker to recognize any others than members of the House. It was for the House, not the Speaker, to determine whether the gentleman should have unanimous consent to proceed. Finally, at the suggestion of the Speaker, an appeal was made, pro forma, for a decision and was immediately tabled. Dawes said it seemed to him too dangerous a precedent to be established, that a member could resign and escape the punishment which the Constitution clothed the House with power to inflict, by resigning regardless of the will of the House. It was proven that the control of the House was at an end. A motion was made to table the resolution of expulsion, and agreed to without division.

Logan then offered a resolution that Whittemore, the late member, did make appointments for the military and naval academy in violation of the law, and was influenced by pecuniary considerations, and that his conduct had been such as to show him unworthy of a seat in the House of Representatives, and therefore the House condemned his conduct as unworthy a representative of the people. Butler asked unanimous consent that Whittemore be heard on the resolution. Morgan objected, and the resolution was adopted unanimously, ayes 185, noes none.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the legislative appropriation bill and continued till four o'clock, when the committee reported the entire bill to the House. All the amendments were agreed to in bulk, except that appropriating $91,000 for the Mint at Carson City, Nevada, and an appropriation for the Bureau of Education, on which separate votes were asked. Without disposing of these, the House adjourned.

In the Senate, the House amendment to the political disability bill, was concurred in.

Pomeroy introduced a bill for the sale of the Osage reservations in Kansas and the removal of the Osage Indians. This was tabled, the committee having reported on the subject.

On motion of Saulsbury, the President was asked for a copy of the commission or the authority issued to Ames, as Provisional Governor of Mississippi.

Williams offered a resolution that to add to the present irredeemable paper securities of the country, would be to render more difficult and remote the resumption of specie payment and encourage and foster spirit of speculation and aggravate the evils produced by the frequent and sudden fluctuations in value, check the healthful tendency of legitimate business to settle down upon a safe and permanent basis; and, therefore, that in the opinion of the Senate, the existing volume of such currency ought not to be increased. Agreed to without discussion.

The bill to secure all persons equal protection under the laws in respect to life and property, was considered during the morning without action.

The question on the admission of Revels was postponed to accommodate Fenton and Patterson, who desired to make speeches on the funding bill, and on account of their necessary absence after to-day. Fenton desired to present an amendment to the bill, so as to authorize bonds at four and a half per cent on the sum of a thousand or twelve hundred millions not taxable by the Federal, State or local authorities, and payable in not less than 40 nor more than 50 years, at the same time retiring the 5-20 and 10 40 bonds, and effecting a gradual contraction by gradual absorption of greenbacks in the new securities, which would result in the resumption of specie payments. He favors the pending bill, but thought it would be greatly improved by his amendment. Not only because it would involve a reduction of interest, but that it would end the clamor which threatened to violate the public faith and impair the public credit. Patterson spoke on financial topics and in favor of funding the debt.

The Revel case was then taken up, the question being on the motion by Stockton to refer the credentials of Revels to the Judiciary Committee. A discussion ensued which was participated in by Saulsbury, Williams, Howard and Cameron, and without action the Senate adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 —In the House, the bill to prevent and punish polygamy in Utah came up. Mr. Fitch, while favoring the suppression of polygamy, opposed the bill because it would lead temporarily at least to the destruction of the overland mail route and be productive of war which, while it would eventually result in the extermination of the Mormons, would cost millions of treasure and thousands of lives. The suppression of polygamy would, in his judgment, be purchased at too great a cost. Mr Sargent opposed the bill on similar grounds.

The Whittemore expulsion case came up for action. Mr Poland asked to have a postponement of the case. Mr Logan opposed. As Chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs he would not consent to any postponement for any purpose except to allow the accused to present such defence as he desired. Butler announced that he appeared as counsel for the accused. An affidavit of Whittemore was read. He complains that he had not a fair chance to defend himself. He denied the right of any member to divest him of his judicial character to become his own attorney in the House. After various points of order, Butler argued in favor of postponement, quoting the 6th Article of the Constitution which guarantees the right of the accused to be confronted with witnesses and have assistance of counsel. In the course of his remarks he alluded to some of the witnesses as newspaper men, and in reply to a question said a newspaper man was a man who hangs around Washington and writes lies home to his newspaper, and denounced them in severe terms and said he would do his duty independent of newspapers. He called attention to the fact in extenuation of Whittemore's offense, that the money was used for charitable purposes. He appealed to the House to deal in the matter nobly and be careful that the accused had every constitutional right.

Logan replied, and said he desired the House to deal with Whittemore justly, even leniently, but a postponement of the case would not be just. He denied that the accused had not been allowed to cross question the witnesses or denied any opportunity to defend himself, said it made no difference what was done with the money as the accused received it, said he could not blame newspapers when members of the House are willing to sell themselves, insisted upon the House doing its duty in the case. In the midst of the case the case the House adjourned.

In the Senate, Spencer offered a resolution instructing the Naval and Military Committees to report upon the expediency of abolishing the Naval Academy at Annapolis and the Military Academy at West Point and the substitution of officers instruction in navigation and war and military tactics, or the inauguration of some other system calculated to relieve the Government of a large expense and enable all who desire to obtain an education for the army or navy at their own expense. The resolution was agreed to.

Indian Fight in Arizona

SANTA FE, N. M. Feb 23. The Fe [illegible] Mesilla correspondent reports that Col Barnard, with a detachment of the 1st and 8th U. S. Cavalry, had a series of running fights with the Indians in Dragoon Mountains, Arizona January 28th. Thirteen Indians were killed and two taken prisoners. The Indian camp and a large amount of materials were destroyed. The bar of gold which Col J. F. Stone had with him when he was killed, and the mail robbed was found in their possession.

Terrible Murder in Colorado

DENVER, Feb 2[illegible] There was a terrible murder yesterday afternoon at Burlington near the [illegible]. Kearney, a well known citizen and J. [illegible] H. Wells returning from Big Thompson [illegible] [illegible] Dubois [illegible] twenty times from Burlington [illegible] and after a few words of [illegible] Dubois drew a revolver and fired several shots killing Kenney instantly. The murderer escaped to the mountains. Citizens are in pursuit. Dubois is a bad character and was arrested lately for robbing the mails near that place.

Washington News

WASHINGTON, Feb 24. The House Banking Committee has finally agreed to the Loughridge resolution adopted by the House for the issue of $5,000,000 more currency. It is intended to provide for that sum in addition to what is given in the Senate bill. It is held that the instructions might be obeyed by reporting the Senate bill with the additional $5,000,000. Other views prevailed. It is said its passage by the House is doubtful and its defeat by the Senate certain.

The increase in the number of the Committee on Elections will have the effect to hasten all pending cases which will be immediately distributed among the five committees and as fast as they can examine a case it will be reported to the House.

The President has signed the Mississippi bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb 24.—Invitations are issued to members of Congress and others to visit the British man of war Monarch. It is expected the President will accompany the party.

New York News

NEW YORK, Feb 23. A large free trade meeting was held this evening. Letters were read from Congressmen Brooks, Cox, Henry Ward Beecher and others, and addresses were made by Samuel J. Tilden and William Cullen Bryant.

The messenger of the State Bank of New Brunswick, New Jersey, was robbed while in the currency department of the sub-treasury to-day, of $7,000 in bonds and $1,000 in currency.

New York Legislature.

NEW YORK, Feb 24 —An Albany dispatch says that among the bills introduced in the Assembly, was one to reorganize the Erie Railroad Company. This bill was drawn up by the counsel of the Erie Company and is designed to forestall the action about to be taken by English stock and bondholders, and to put Fisk, Gould & Co in full possession of the road for all time to come. The intention is to buy the bill through the Legislature, as was done with the Legislature two years ago. Marketable members and lobbyists are in high glee at the prospect of the distribution of another half million of Erie money.

From Cuba.

NEW YORK Feb 24 —A recent trustworthy correspondent from Cuba says that the Casino Espanola has lately become solely a social club. All functions of the Society have been delegated to the control of a Junta, at whose head is Manuel Calvo as President. This move is understood to signify that the party opposed to Antonino have retired routed from control, and that the other division of Spanish who favor the semi independence of the island under a Protectorate have carried the day. The latter were severely denounced by Castinon, Bareau and other leaders. Late accounts show that the Commission sent by Manuel to Jamaica for the purpose of purchasing arms and munitions were unusually successful.

HAVANA Feb 24. The steamer Moro Castle arrived to-day from New York. She was run ashore on Rugged Key, where she remained twelve hours but was got off by throwing the cargo overboard. She fired guns and hoisted a signal of distress but the steamer Frankfort passed in plain sight and paid no attention.

The Captain General authorizes the statement that information has come into the hands of the government confirming the suspicions which have long been entertained that the Cubans who are not fighting in the field or working against Spain have been ordered to join the volunteer battalion here and under the cover of the national uniform to perpetrate a series of assassinations on foreigners with the object of involving the government with foreign powers. The government expects the loyal volunteers to aid in exposing all traitors of this class.

Acting Consul General Hall received two weeks ago an anonymous letter warning him that he was in danger of assassination. He notified the Captain General who paid no further attention to it. The following day three natives of Havana who were suspected of connection with the proposed assassination left for New Orleans.

Juarez, however, understands the wants of the priests and the temper of the Mexicans and will undoubtedly defeat this new attack on his government.

Democratic Opposition to the Material Interests of the Country

Letters from Washington state that Democratic Senators declare their intention to oppose all land subsidies for every purpose, to the bitter end Even a Democratic Senator from a Pacific State (fortunately the only one from the Pacific) to whom we would naturally look, if to any Senator of that party, for a favor of this sort for Oregon joined with his political associates in that body to try to defeat a grant of lands which is vital to the prosperity and development of our State, and this seems to be the settled policy of Democratic members in both branches of Congress We ask the people of Oregon to consider this matter Do they want to support a party which would check the development of their State and strike a paralyzing blow at their most important interests? By the following from the Globe of the 1th inst it will be seen with what persistent determination Mr Thurman, the leader in the Senate on the Democratic side, opposed the bill granting lands, which has just passed the Senate in spite of Democratic opposition

Mr. Williams. I move that the Senate proceed to the consideration of Senate bill No 396

The motion was agreed to, and the Senate, as in Committee of the Whole, proceeded to consider the bill (S bill No 396) granting lands to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from Portland to Astoria and McMinnville, in the State of Oregon

Mr Thurman I should like to ask the Senator from Oregon how many acres of land this bill grants for this railroad?

Mr Williams I did not exactly understand the Senator, but I can state that this road is about one hundred miles in length, from the Willamette valley to the Pacific ocean The bill provides, as the Senator can see, for ten odd sections per mile on each side. I have not made the computation to see how much the aggregate amount would be, and therefore cannot specifically answer the question, but it is a matter of easy computation

Mr Thurman. The Senate will see this is one of those mammoth grants of land

Mr Williams. Will the Senator allow the amendments reported by the committee to be acted upon, and then proceed to discuss the merits of the bill? There are some amendments reported by the committee that are immaterial except to improve the details of the bill.

Mr. Thurman The amendments, I understand, do not affect the grant, they retain the grant in the bill.

Mr Williams, Yes, sir.

Mr. Thurman What I have to say is in reference to that, and I will say it now in a very few words.

Mr. President, at the last session of Congress there were presented by my colleague certain resolutions of the General Assembly of Ohio against any of these grants to railroad companies for the reasons that are set forth in those resolutions, and the Senators and Representatives from Ohio were requested to oppose all such grants. I concur with those resolutions. I think they lay down the proper policy, that the land of this Government ought now to be saved for actual settlers, and [illegible] to railroad companies. If you are to grant subsidies to railroad companies I would greatly prefer that you should sell the lands and give them the money but to give them immense tracts of land, as this bill proposes to give them, twenty sections per mile for eighty or a hundred miles, is what I cannot vote for. I am perfectly willing that they shall have the right of way through the public lands, but I am totally opposed to these grants, and by way of testing the opinion of the Senate on the subject of railroad grants such as this, I move that this bill be referred back to the Committee on Public Lands with instructions to strike out all the grant in the bill except that of the mere right of way.

Mr. Williams. I suppose it is not necessary now to defend the policy that has been adopted by the Government to assist in the construction of railroads in new States by grants of land. Oregon is a State that has nearly one hundred thousand square miles within its borders. It has had one grant for a railroad, and now it asks Congress to make another grant to assist in the construction of another small railroad in that State. The objection which the Senator makes to this bill is not available, for the reason that the bill provides expressly that every foot of the land shall be sold to actual settlers. The lands granted are as open under the provisions of this bill, to actual settlers, as they are under the pre-emption laws of the country. It simply provides that when settlers go upon these lands they may buy them of the company, and the proceeds shall be applied to assist in the construction of the road. The road runs through the coast range of mountains, a region of country that never will be settled, the lands of which never will be worth one cent unless there are improvements made by which those lands shall be made accessible to population Everybody who has had any experience in the Western States knows that there is nothing like a railroad to improve a country, to attract population, and to develop the resources of a State.

Mr. Howard. I should like to ask the Senator from Oregon this question: if the building of this road is not the only means by which you can open up that tract of country to settlement?

Mr Williams. No doubt that is the only way in which it can be done, and it will be not only an advantage to the Government, but to the whole country, to have this railroad constructed

Mr. Howard Will the Senator from Oregon state what will be the probable length of the road?

Mr Williams. About one hundred miles I have stated that the road will run about one hundred miles. For twenty or thirty miles it runs through a thickly settled country, the Willamette valley, where nearly all the lands are taken and occupied by settlers. Then it strikes the coast range of mountains In these mountains there are lands that are valuable, or would be valuable if persons settling upon them could have any access to market; but it is impossible for men to go upon these lands and cut down the timber and cultivate them and raise enough to pay for taking what they raise to market. It is to open up that region of country that this grant is asked. It does not interfere with the settlement of the country. It is a very small grant of land compared with many that are made by Congress, and I hope there will be no objection to it

Mr Thurman. I think it very clear that this bill cannot pass in this morning hour Certainly those who are opposed to this policy of granting such enormous bodies of land to railroad companies are not willing that a bill like this shall pass without some discussion.

Mr. Thayer rose.

Mr. Thurman. Now, I pray the Senator not to interrupt me. In thirty years we shall have one hundred million people, in less than sixty years two hundred million people in the United States; and where is the land they are to get? Every year it becomes more and more difficult for a man to become the owner of land Why sir, so far from there being too much land in the country, so far from it being easy to get a farm, so far from it being easy to become the owner of real estate, the time is almost at our doors when it will be almost as impossible for a man to get real estate in this country as it is in Europe

The Vice President. The Senator from Ohio will suspend his remarks. The morning hour having expired, the currency bill is before the Senate.

Mr Thurman I will not ask the Senate to put aside the order of the day for me, but I do hope that this bill will be thoroughly discussed, and when it shall be taken up on an occasion when there will be time enough to discuss it I hope to have the indulgence of the Senate in stating more fully why I am opposed to it

American Credit

A London dispatch of a recent date says "The Times to day reprints a great portion of an editorial from the New York Times, and comments approvingly on the latter's assertion that American credit is dying in Europe because ruffians slay it at home. Commenting on the above, the Roseburg Ensign says

These ruffians were formerly the secessionists and are now the repudiationists of the country. Though they are so hopelessly in the minority in the United States that there is no reasonable ground for apprehension that they will ever be able to carry out their disgraceful and ruinous policy, it is their clamor that creates distrust of American credit in foreign countries The dominant faction of the Democratic party in this State are of that class They are the men who have dedicated themselves to the destruction of our Government, and having failed in the direct blow aimed at the Government through the rebellion, they now seek to accomplish by indirect means what they failed to achieve in open war Very few, if any, of the men who sustained the Government, by either aid or sympathy, during the rebellion, are now in favor of disgracing it by repudiating its contracts

OREGON

Very flattering prospects are given for a season of unusual prosperity in mining in Baker county The snow is deep on the mountains, and this will yield a good supply of water for a long mining season Rich new discoveries near Pocahontas are reported

Says the Salem Press From all parts of the State we have reports of great activity on the part of the friends of temperance A great movement seems to be on the tapis and there is a prospect that some plan is to be devised that will check the alarming growth of intemperance The subject has been talked of on the streets of Salem and in the [illegible] more freely this week than we have ever known before It is the general theme of conversation.

The Grande Ronde Sentinel of last Saturday chronicles the killing of a man named McLaughlin by another named Hughes, at El Dorado, Baker county, Feb 11th McLaughlin had killed a dog which belonged to Hughes and from that trivial cause the latter shot and instantly killed McLaughlin, and then turned to a boy who had witnessed the murder and threatened to kill him also unless he promised to swear that the murdered man had shot himself accidentally Deputy Sheriff Roberts arrested Hughes and lodged him in Baker City jail on the 14th to await trial

Speaking of the late suicide the Salem Statesman says James T Crump was a man of pleasing address, possessing many friends and capable of winning strong friendships There were many reasons why his life should have been happy and useful, and it would be mistaken kindness to attempt to conceal from the world the fact that he has fallen another victim to one of the most destructive of vices that afflict society Gaming had become with him a passion He was scarcely ever known to partake of strong liquor, and his character seems to have been remarkably free from faults, with this one exception

The Oregon Medical and Surgical Reporter for February, contains an article on "Consanguineous Marriages," from which we make the following extract: "The law of descent governs both power and weakness All the elements or the constitution—capacities, susceptibilities, tendencies, taints, etc, are heirlooms passing from generation to generation Now, if these, or any of them, belong to both parents, they have a double probability of passing to the children If, then, both parents, although cousins, are perfect in constitution and health, and have nothing to transmit but power, then their children have a double security against constitutional imperfection, and a double warranty of inherited capacity and strength The converse is also true of cousins who have imperfections and liabilities in common. If they marry, the provide a double chance of the repetition of the same weaknesses and susceptibilities in their offspring"

The Fight with the Indians in Montana

[Correspondence Helena Herald]

FT. SHAW, M. T, Jan 30, '70.

The deed is done; the murder of Malcomb Clark has been avenged, the guilty Indians have been punished, and a terrible warning has been given to others of our red skinned brethren who may be inclined to live by murdering and plundering the white man.

My first report of the result of the expedition was not it appears, altogether correct, as the telegraph has ere this informed you This, however, was no fault of mine, as the same information was received as reliable, by the authorities here

The troops under Col. Baker's command surprised the camp of Bear Chief, on the banks of the Marias river, at day break on the morning of the 23d instant. The surprise was so complete that the red skins fired but few shots. One of these, however, killed McCabe, of Co L 2d Cavalry This was the only soldier killed or wounded One hundred and seventy-three Indians were sent to their happy hunting grounds, and a Mexican, who had been bringing whisky into the camp from Benton, met with his just reward. It is a question whether such men are not worse than the Indians themselves. The women and children, as far as was practicable, were spared, but to the men no quarter was given. To them the sentence of death was dealt with an unflinching hand Their "cup of iniquity" had been filled to the brim, and the time had come when it was to be dashed to atoms. Probably there was not a soldier there who would not rather have seen a hard fight, but this was not to be. From all I can learn, the Indians were perfectly paralyzed with fright, and were mostly shot in their teepees. Mountain Chief and a few others effected their escape. All the rest of the men were killed, and their camp, consisting of forty-four teepees, together with all their earthly possessions, except their horses, (which were brought into this post,) were burned over their dead bodies

This band of Indians, one of the worst that frequented these parts, has thus been exterminated.

While we cannot help feeling deep regret that a necessity, like that which called forth this extreme measure, should exist, it is impossible to conceive how it could have been avoided. To let things continue as they were, was beyond the remotest bounds of reason. And all peaceable means to put an end to the robberies and murders, that these savages were daily committing, had been tried and had failed. It was the last step; a terrible, but also a just and effective one.

The boys stood the exposure to the weather bravely, and no serious cases of frost bite occurred. This expedition has certainly established the fact that our soldiers can fight the Indians in any weather

From all reports it would appear that extensive preparations are being made to keep the Indians in check during the coming Summer and ensuing Winter It is rumored that Fort Buford, a very important position on the Missouri, will be garrisoned by a whole regiment of cavalry, while Montana is to have a larger number of mounted men stationed at her various military posts

Official notice of the change of stations between the 7th and 13th Infantry, in the Spring, has been received The exact time when this movement will take place is not known

Colonel Baker and his command of cavalry started for Fort Ellis to day, where, it is said, the Sioux and Crows are at war with one another. This is one nail driving out another Drive away! We have heard that "a house divided against itself cannot stand" If the house of Lo is about to tumble, we say, "let her rip" J T Z

Population of the United States Twenty Years Hence

The Commissioner of the General Land Office makes the following estimate of the population of the United States in 1890, or twenty years hence The present law of growth having been found for each State, the following results are worked out. There is no process by which such data can be shown to be correct, because a new law of growth may affect many of the States. Some will grow faster than at present, others will fall behind the present ratio of increase. But the results are interesting, as showing the probable future growth of States The predictions are advancing far beyond guess work and in many instances will no doubt be verified.

Temperance Rally at Belpassi

According to previous arrangements, the Good Templars of Marion and Rock Creek Lodges met at the lodge room of Marion Lodge early in the morning of the 22d of February and formed a procession in the following order: Marion Lodge with the national flag and banners with appropriate mottoes, Rock Creek Lodge with the national flag and a banner with name and number of lodge From there they marched (with banners up and colors flying) to Belpassi Church, where delegations from Vesper, Marquam and Newelsville Lodges, together with a large number of people, were in waiting Owing to unavoidable circumstances neither of the speakers, who had been invited to be present and address the meeting, were there, but as Good Templars never undertake anything without accomplishing it, the meeting was called to order by the Chairman and the object of the meeting briefly stated Prayer was then offered by the Worthy Chaplain, after which a most telling lecture was delivered by Rev J Harer, followed by a short but spirited address by Hon. Samuel Brown A pledge of total abstinence was presented and signed by 102 persons. The meeting then adjourned to partake of a sumptuous dinner prepared by the good citizens of Belpassi After dinner most of those living at a distance went home rejoicing, but Bro. J. Harer, who never lets an opportunity to do good pass unimproved, remained until evening and reorganized Colfax Lodge No 24 with 26 charter members. The officers elected for the present term are as follows B S Bonney, W C T, Mary Kennady, W. V T; George Engle, W. S., Perry Kennady, W F. S, John Calvert, W T, Charles Stewart, W M, Emma Kennady, W I G, A J Melvin, W O G, A C Bonney W R H S, Lucy Walsh, W L H. S, Mary Bell, W A S, Emma Brown, W D M, Amos S Gleason, W C Samuel Brown was recommended for Lodge Deputy [illegible] ITEMS. From the Advocate we learn that the question of "Temperance" was discussed at the prayer meeting on Tuesday last The question for next Tuesday is "the Best plan for conducting prayer meetings" Rev J H Wilbur will open the debate

[illegible] attended the Taylor St M E Sabbath school on Sabbath afternoon last, took charge of a [illegible] class and addressed the school [illegible] the members of the school [illegible] during the week [illegible]

A daily union prayer meeting has been held at the Taylor street M E Church for the past two weeks

The protracted meeting in the M E Church at Oregon city has been continued during the present week Rev A [illegible] Fairchild of East Portland assisting in the various services

The Catholic Sentinel says it is in contemplation to have a vocal and instrumental concert on Easter Monday the 18th of April next in aid of the Society of St Vincent De Paul of this city and in order to enlarge its usefulness and spread its charities more effectually The choir of the Catholic Church Professors Gans and Grob, and several other ladies and gentlemen have kindly volunteered their services for the occasion, and are having weekly rehearsals for that purpose

The Rev Father Bouchard, hearing that a Conference of the Society of St Vincent De Paul has been instituted in this city kindly signifies his willingness to deliver a lecture for its benefit at the time of his next visit to this State

Since the establishment of the Society of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary in this city it has had considerable success in its school, and has been enabled to educate, and to support and educate a large number of orphans and poor children as the following statement will show During the five years last past, the average number per year of children, entirely at the charge of the Society for board clothing and tuition was 17 during the same time the average number per year in whose favor a deduction was made, was 25, during the same time the average number per year whose schooling was given gratuitously, was 36; the present number of children entirely at the charge of the Society for board, clothing and tuition is 9 number in whose favor a deduction is made, 29 number whose schooling is given gratuitously 40

AT THE THEATER.—Notwithstanding the storminess of the weather the Theater was pretty well attended last evening and the performance was truly astonishing in the unequalled acrobatic feats by the Gregory brothers and the tricks by the trained dogs monkeys and ponies These animals exhibit an intelligence that seems almost human, and the audience was greatly pleased at their wonderful performances. We should also mention the singing by Miss Bessie Gregory which was one of the features of the entertainment and pleased her hearers excessively She was frequently encored All who have not seen this troupe should go this evening.

IN JAIL.—[illegible] out the lonesome years like the carol of a bird pouring its melodious notes through some ruined temple," but the drunken Mary Lee, whose hideous [illegible] pierced the night air in the vicinity of [illegible] the dirtiest rum shops in [illegible] "common drunkard," she was sent to jail again.

THE MATINEE.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon the Gregory Troupe will give a grand matinee at the Theatre, at which the entertainment will be similar in every respect to the evening entertainments This troupe is superior to any who have ever visited this city, and their entertainments are particularly attractive to the children, and are by no means without interest to children of a larger growth The [illegible] should be completely filled this afternoon.

CIRCUIT COURT.—We learn that in the hurry of the moment on Thursday, the Circuit Court was inadvertently adjourned until Saturday (to-day,) instead of Friday as was the intention, [illegible] of the officers forgetting the day of the [illegible] So there was no session yesterday. To day the time will be taken up in the argument of motions, demurrers, etc., the jurymen having leave of absence until Monday

U S CIRCUIT COURT.—Yesterday in the United States Circuit Court, Hon. M. P Deady, Judge, the case of J B. Fitch vs. Jonathan Moore, an action to recover possession of real property, was tried by the Court without the intervention of a jury. The final argument [illegible] made by [illegible] and the cause submitted

The court adjourned until Tuesday March 1st.

U S DISTRICT COURT.—The U. S District Court being in session yesterday, the Grand Jury presented three bills of indictment and [illegible] "True Bills"

In the matter of the United States vs Edward Mathiot, indicted for illicit distilling the bail was fixed at $5,000

The Court adjourned until this morning.

IN CONCLAVE.—Several prominent Democrats from abroad are in this city, and yesterday a [illegible] conclave of some kind, supposed to be political in its character, was held over a saloon on First street. Bascom, who is always on hand at Democratic gatherings, was taking active interest in matters.

PRACTICAL EFFECT.—A gentleman who heard the sermon of Rev Mr Anderson on the subject of "Model Wives," last Sunday evening, at the Baptist Church took prompt action on the principles advocated and got married the next day. This looks like preaching with good effect.

UNDER BONDS —Yesterday a complaint was lodged in the Recorder's Court against a man named Cosgrove, charging him with threatening to kill his wife Judge Anderson in order to preserve peace in the Cosgrove family, put him under bonds in the sum of $200

NEW SEATS The main room in the Central School building has been furnished with new seats and desks of a very excellent pattern and fine finish A recess was taken by the school yesterday in order to allow workmen to put the seats in their places

PREACHING AT ORO FINO.—Rev T L Eliot Pastor of the Unitarian Church will deliver a discourse to-morrow evening at half past seven o'clock at Oro Fino Theater on the subject, "The Drinking Habit and its Cure" Everybody is invited

PERSONAL.—Mr Peugra of Lane county, left this city yesterday morning for Washington City It is said that he goes for the purpose of presenting some important negotiations relative to railroad enterprises in Southern Oregon

[illegible] Several parties were inquiring yesterday concerning a rumor which was pretty extensively circulated that 1,500 Chinamen had been killed [illegible] in San Francisco The report was probably entirely groundless

COUNTY MATTERS The County Commissioners met yesterday afternoon and transacted some unimportant business The subject of reconstructing the various road districts in the county was canvassed and some changes proposed

TO YOUNG MEN.—We again call attention to the sermon [illegible] to be delivered by Rev James [illegible] to-morrow evening Subject [illegible] "The Young Man's True [illegible] Happiness"

[illegible] the third of a series of sermons being delivered by Rev E L Anderson [illegible] are invited to attend

CITY.

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.—From the Advocate we learn that the question of "Temperance" was discussed at the preachers' meeting on Tuesday last. The question for next Tuesday is "the Best plan for conducting prayer meetings." Rev. J. H. Wilbur will open the debate.

Gov. Woods attended the Taylor St. M. E. Sabbath school on Sabbath afternoon last, took charge of a Bible-class, and addressed the school. He doubted whether all the members of the school studied their lessons during the week. It was put to vote, and about one-half did not.

A daily noon prayer meeting has been held at the Taylor street M. E. Church for the past two weeks.

The protracted meeting in the M. E. Church at Oregon city has been continued during the present week, Rev. A. C. Fairchild of East Portland assisting in the various services.

The Catholic Sentinel says it is in contemplation to have a vocal and instrumental concert on Easter Monday, the 18th of April next, in aid of the Society of St. Vincent De Paul, of this city, and in order to enlarge its usefulness and spread its charities more effectually. [illegible] were made by counsel [illegible] submitted. [illegible] until Tuesday March 1st.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—The U. S. District Court [illegible] in session yesterday, the Grand Jury [illegible] three bills of indictment endorsed "True Bill." In the case of the United States vs. Edward [illegible] for illicit distilling, the bail was fixed at $1,500. [illegible] adjourned until this morning.

[illegible]—Several prominent Democrats [illegible] are in this city, and yesterday a [illegible] of some kind, supposed to be [illegible] in its character, was held over a saloon [illegible] Bascom, who is always on hand at [illegible] gatherings, was taking active interest [illegible].

[illegible] EFFECT.—A gentleman who heard the sermon of Rev. Mr. Anderson on the subject of "Model Wives," last Sunday evening, at the Baptist Church, took prompt action on the principles illustrated and got married the next day. That's like preaching with good effect.

UNDER BONDS.—Yesterday a complaint was [illegible] in the Recorder's Court against a man [illegible], charging him with threatening to kill his wife. Judge Anderson, in order to preserve [illegible] in the Cosgrove family, put him under [illegible] in the sum of $200.

NEW SEATS.—The main room in the Central School building has been furnished with new seats and [illegible] of a very excellent pattern and fine finish. A recess was taken by the school yesterday [illegible] to allow workmen to put the seats in their places.

[illegible] AT ORO FINO.—Rev. T. L. Eliot, pastor of the Unitarian Church, will deliver a discourse to-morrow evening, at half past seven o'clock at Oro Fino Theater, on the subject, "The Drinking Habit and its Cure." Everybody is invited.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Peugra, of Lane county, left this city yesterday morning for Washington City. It is said that he goes for the purpose of prosecuting some important negotiations relative to [illegible] enterprises in Southern Oregon.

RUMOR.—Several parties were inquiring yesterday concerning a rumor which was pretty extensively circulated that 1,500 Chinamen had been killed by a mob in San Francisco. The report was probably entirely groundless.

COUNTY MATTERS.—The County Commissioners met yesterday afternoon and transacted some unimportant business. The subject of reconstructing the various road districts in the county was canvassed and some changes proposed.

TO YOUNG MEN.—We again call attention to the sermon to young men to be delivered by Rev. James Selwood at Trinity Church to-morrow evening. Subject: "The Young Man's True Path to Happiness."

THIRD SERMON.—The third of a series of sermons being delivered by Rev. E. C. Anderson, of the Baptist Church, will be preached to-morrow Sunday evening. Seats free, and all are invited to attend.

PROGRAMME.—Should the weather permit the military band will entertain the public at the Plaza this afternoon, by discoursing the musical programme as published for last Wednesday.

TO ARRIVE.—The Montana from San Francisco and the California from Victoria will probably arrive at this port to-morrow.

DANCERS READ.—Prof. Cardinell will give a social dancing party at his hall on Front street this evening.

The sale of 19,000 GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINES on this coast is a convincing proof of their popularity.—[illegible] & Co., Agents.

THE WEST

It is reported that women will have all the privileges of the University of California, on an equality with male students.

A California exchange says: "Sam Gelham is stocking an opossum ranch in [illegible] Valley, and has sent East for fifty pairs of opossums."

There are two millions of dollars "locked up" in the California State Treasury, a fact which Oregon Democrats ought to protest against vigorously.

The Sutro Tunnel is in [illegible] feet. The ground has been hard, requiring blasting, but at present is improving and the quantity of water is decreasing.

A California paper says: "The shipment of Eastern oysters to this coast must have proved a very lucrative investment for those who inaugurated and perfected the enterprise. Taking the ruling prices in San Francisco for the Eastern bivalves, and knowing that there are few middlemen to decrease the profits, and we feel safe in asserting that a fortune is the result of a few successful shipments."

A Lunatic Marriage

From the New York Sun, January [illegible]

Prior to October last, Herman Albert, son of a wealthy down town broker, had for some time been an inmate of the Lunatic Asylum on Blackwell's Island. His treatment there had been productive of such beneficial results as led to his discharge, therefrom apparently restored to reason. Freedom from restraint, however, soon brought on a return of his malady, and he was sent back to the Asylum only to be again discharged as sane. After this proceeding had been several times repeated, he became at last a permanent inmate of the asylum, being granted short furloughs during his sane intervals.

Toward the close of September last year Albert was granted a furlough of one month, and on the 26th of October, his leave of absence having expired, he duly presented himself at the Asylum. If as his subsequent acts prove, he was still mad there was a strange method for his madness for the experienced doctors of the Asylum, after a very careful examination, declared him still sane, and further extended his leave another month.

For a few days nothing occurred to lead Herman's friends to suspect he was less clear in his intellect than he had been for the past month. On the 30th of October, four days after he had returned from the Asylum, he left his father's house on Tenth street, and much to the consternation of all the inmates failed to return. Several days passed without any tidings of him when it was ascertained that he was back in the Asylum, whither he had been sent by a magistrate before whom he had been brought for roaming the streets while in a dangerous state of lunacy.

On leaving his house, Herman, as was his custom, quietly walked through some of the principal thoroughfares of the city for exercise, until when, where or how is not known, he was enticed into a disreputable house, which to his [illegible] gaze appeared to be a cigar store in Canal street. While there one Maria Diers, a showy, [illegible] particular attention to the victim, and knowing him to be the son of wealthy parents, filled him with wine and persuaded him to accompany her to the house of the Rev J. A. Foerseh, 82 Stanton street, by whom they were speedily made husband and wife.

The newly married couple had been married only a few days when the Benedict, in an unmistakeable fit of insanity, wandered from his home and was nabbed by a policeman, and ignominiously sent off to the Asylum on Blackwell's Island. But his devoted spouse had no notion of being deprived of his society, so applying to a lawyer a habeas corpus was obtained which released Herman. Having recovered from the paroxysm which caused his incarceration, he was given up to his wife.

In a very short time after being released from the Asylum, he was found wildly parading the streets fantastically dressed in his wife's petticoat, crinoline, and bonnet, and again he was arrested and sent to his old quarters on the island. Recourse was again had to the habeas corpus, but that mighty instrument did not influence the Judges of the Supreme Court. Three times the wife returned to the charge with a like result, until driven to desperation she has commenced an action against the father of Herman for having maliciously deprived her of the comfort and support of her husband, fixing her damages at $10,000.

Mr. Albert has, on his side, taken steps to have the marriage declared void on the ground of lunacy of one of the contracting parties, and the alleged practice of fraud on the part of the other.

CLOCKS! CLOCKS!—Everybody needs a good Clock. B. L. Stone has an inexhaustible supply because they keep coming as fast as he sells off. He has all kinds and sells so cheap that any one who wishes to buy cannot fail to be suited in price and quality.

RAILROAD MATTERS are very likely to be lively this spring. The East Side Company will engage a large force of men to complete their road to Albany, and the West Side Company will, very probably, build a portion of their road in order to obtain a land grant to facilitate the building of their line to McMinnville. Kohn & Fishel are keeping up with railroad times. Their stock of spring goods coming across the continent by rail will be the largest and finest stock of Clothing ever imported to this State. Their stock in store now is offered very low to make room for large arrivals. They are manufacturing the neatest Boys' Suits and always have on hand a large stock of the same which are offered at lowest figures.

VALUABLE.—The recent bill before Congress granting aid for the construction of a railroad from the Columbia river to Puget Sound, if passed will make the large tracts of coal and timber lands owned by the Puget Sound Homestead Association on the Skookum Chuck and Newaukum very valuable.

A few shares only remain untaken and can be had at the office of the Secretary or of Mr. Conklin, Canvassing Agent.

REMOVAL.—J. W. Campbell has removed his new Patent Bed Bottom manufactory to Messrs. Jensen & Rethlefsen's Cabinet and Carpenter shop, southeast corner of Morrison and Fourth streets. Although but recently introduced, the Minnesota Bed Bottom is fast coming into general use and is giving general satisfaction. Come and see it. j29d1m

The Living Machine.

Injure the main spring of a watch and every portion of the works becomes disordered. The human stomach is to the human system what that elastic piece of metal is to a chronometer. It influences the action of the other organs, and controls to a certain extent, the whole living machine. The comparison may be carried further, for as the weakness or other imperfections of the main spring is indicated on the face of the timepiece, so also is the weakness or other disorder of the stomach betrayed by the face of the invalid. The complexion is sallow or faded, the eyes are deficient in luster and intelligence, and there is a worn, anxious expression in the whole countenance which tell as plainly as written words could do, that the great nourishing organ whose office it is to minister to the wants of the body, and to sustain and renew all its parts, is not performing its duty. It requires renovating and regulating, and to accomplish this end Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be truly said to be the one thing needful. The broken main spring of a watch may be replaced by a new one, but the stomach can only be repaired and strengthened, and this is one of the objects of the famous vegetable restorative which for eighteen years has been waging a successful contest with dyspepsia in all climates. As a specific for indigestion it stands alone. When the resources of the pharmacopœia have been exhausted, without, at best, doing more than mitigating the complaint, a course of this wholesome and palatable, yet powerful stomachic effects a perfect and permanent cure. In all cases of dyspepsia the liver is more or less disordered, and upon this important gland, as well as upon the stomach and bowels, the Bitters act with singular distinctness regulating and re-invigorating every secretive and assimilating organ on which bodily and mental health depend.

HORNE'S

PATENT SINCH FASTENER!

CAN BE USED ON PACK, RIDING AND SIDE Saddles. A child large enough to lift a saddle on a horse can tighten up the girth with ease. It is very simple in construction, never gets out of repair, is safe, convenient and costs very little more than the old method.

State, Territorial and County Rights for sale. For the Pacific States and Territories, address C. H. HORNE, Astoria, Clatsop county, Oregon. Atlantic States, address J. W. GEARHART, care of Messrs. Barnet Slates & Ballard, Newark, N. J.

We respectfully refer to the following Card:

Having examined the New Patent Sinch or Belly Band Fastener invented by C. H. Horne of Astoria, Oregon, we take pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is one of the easiest, quickest and best method of tightening a saddle girth that has ever been in use. It also has an advantage over all others in use in being able to tighten your saddle girth without dismounting.

n Representatives and British Commons.

[From the Boston Advertiser.]

London Times, after a long study of onal affairs, has come to entertain the that there is a striking lack of able the House of Representatives at gton. Such an opinion, from an ob- a distance, is worth knowing, and for it ought to forbid us to make arks upon the average ability of the s of the House of Commons, or the f statesmanship to be looked for in a noblemen taken at random from the Peers.

ng ourselves in the position of a for- dent of our affairs, it seems to us that l part of this sadly unfavorable judg- on the character of our representative ay be due to one or two of its habits. nglishman who visits Washington, or ds our newspapers with attention, has from himself to the spectacle, which st regards with amazement, of a sit- the House when only a little group of s is present, when nothing is done to- islation, when speeches are made to nobody listens and nobody is expected n, which have no influence for or any measure, and which are intended the personal satisfaction of the speak- livering them and the doubtful edifi- f his distant constituents in reading An American passes this by without ht, because he is used to it. But it is f absurd. It argues anything but l ability or common sense in the mem- o indulge in it. If we were to hear of it irst time from Dr. Livingstone or Pro- Pumpelly as one of customs of some community on the Nyanza or in the of China, we should laugh heartily at porateness of its folly. But in our own e alternative for it is the equally ridic- ashion of printing at the public expense s which never were delivered, which ever heard, which could not have elivered without the orator's being o order for flagrant breaches of pro- and sending them about the country at lic expense to assist the silent orator ting his friends at home for his own glory.

egret that we cannot indignantly dis- om the Times' conclusions as to the results we have offered from the expe- of popular suffrage. Doubtless there e who will do so, and perhaps we ar their wrathful periods some Satur- rnoon in the House, or read them in e. But we do not follow the Times in erferences. Our Congress represents ng points and our weak spots, and as y better and wiser as a nation it will t us in a manner of which we shall s and less cause to be ashamed. And the earliest improvements which to bring about, we look for the dis- of the feeble habits of speaking with- ate and of reporting what has never tered.

ORFUL PHYSICAL PHENOMENON.—The leans Times, of January 26th, says:

celebrated physicist, Dr. Priestly, xperimenting with electricity, casually ated one of his fingers, so as to make ectly transparent. The curious phe- n was noted in his journal though it t appear to have excited any further . About two years ago, under similar stances, the no less celebrated philoso- Dr. W. B. Richardson, of London ated nearly the whole of his hand. ange fact was published in the Lon- ncet, and copied generally in all scien- urnals throughout the old world.

ntly, Dr. Thomas Nicholson, of this as pursued this wonderful fact still and with considerable success. If the whole internal machinery uman system could thus be brought under the inspection of medical prac- s, the advantage to science and human- ld be incalculable. Every one will re- r the semi-transparent appearance of d when held between the eye and a l light, and if the vision be aided by l appliances, there is no difficult in ng an immense increase of our clair- powers. We may thus be enabled over structural and functional ail- which are now wholly hidden from sight, and apply remedies with an nowlege of what we desire to accom-

Ship Building Abroad and at Home.

To the Editors of the Boston Daily Advertiser:

As some surprise has been manifested at the estimated difference of cost between an iron steamer of 3,000 tons built in Scotland and a similar ship built here, perhaps some ingenious arithmetician would like to work out the result from these data. Messrs. William Denny & Brothers, of Dumbarton on the Clyde, have given me this statement:

Such a ship as costs there, labor about	£21,500
Material	[illegible]
Engine of 400 nominal 2,000 effective horse power	[illegible]
Total complete	£[illegible]
They say the labor is, for "skilled"	25s. a 28s. per week
Average	26s. 6d.
Labor ordinary	15s. a 18s.
Average	16s. 6d.
The week of course of [illegible]
The cost of iron in November last was
Pig iron	£2 17s per ton
Plates	[illegible]
Common bar	7
Best	8
The Atlantic Works of East Boston gave, within three weeks of that time
Labor, "skilled," currency	$3 00 per day
ordinary	2 00
Pig iron, per ton	$41 00
Plates	101 00
Common bar	92 50
Best	97 50

They state that 55 per cent. of the iron that enters into the composition of a steamer is bar and 45 per cent. plate, the amount of cast iron being so small as to be of no account. They assume, although upon this point they do not speak positively, that the labor is four-fifths ordinary and one-fifth skilled.

Now we will take the value of the pound sterling at the custom house valuation, viz: $4 84 in gold. It will appear that the average cost of a day's labor is 75 cents gold in Scotland and $1 83 gold here. The whole cost of labor on the steamer there is £21,500: equal to $104,060 in gold. This would pay for 138,747 days' work. What would the same number of days' work cost here at $1 83? $253,907 12—a difference of $149,847 in gold, would it not? If the skilled labor is greater in proportion, so much greater would be the difference. If all the labor was skilled it would be $198,498. As to the material, it is scarcely worth while to make a computation. Those who have the curiosity can calculate for themselves. Every one admits that at present prices England has all the advantages over us. Of the £40,000 used in Scotland, perhaps £3,000 would be in rough lumber, which, though cheaper than here, does not bear the same relative cost as iron.

But a glance at the tariff will show that hemp, paints, gold leaf, crockery, glass, furniture, &c., are nearly as expensive relatively. Now we propose that all duties should be removed in order to enable our builders to compete. What then? We still have that $148,878 (gold) in labor against us, and in addition the freight and charges on the material, the higher price of coal, and a difference of three per cent. per annum in the interest of money invested in our works.

George D. Prentice was born on a winter's Saturday that was attended by a gale that swept over the country far and wide. On Saturday, in the midst of an untoward winter flood, his stormy life closed.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

PORTLAND, Feb. 25, 1870.

Gold at New York, 23d, 118.

Portland Legal Tender rates 84½.

Our exportations during the past two months have tended to render the money market easy, and we hear but little complaint in regard to the manner in which dealers generally meet their obligations.

The produce market presents but few changes to-day, the receipts continuing large, while it is said that the present facilities for transportation on the Willamette river will scarcely be sufficient to get the flour and grain in the valley into this market before being troubled again by low water.

The market report of a late number of the San Francisco Bulletin contains the following:

Flour—Upwards of 3,000 bbls Oregon came to hand by the Ajax to-day.

Wheat—500 sks Oregon, per Montana, private; quotable at $1 60@1 67½. About 6,000 sks of same description came by the Ajax to-day.

Barley—A sample lot of Oregon Chevalier was exhibited to-day, quotable at $1 40; other kinds, $1 15@$1 25 per 100 lbs.

Oats—600 sks Oregon, per Montana and Ajax, private, 200 sks choice California, $1 60 per 100 lbs.

Potatoes—5,000 bags Humboldt were received to-day by the Pelican; one small consignment sold prior to arrival at $1; 300 sks ordinary Bodega, 75c per 100 lbs.

Ripe Fruit—About 1,000 bxs Oregon apples, per Ajax, sold at 80c to $1 5c, averaging $1 40 per box of 40 lbs.

Groceries are rather more active, and orders for supplies are being received from merchants in the interior. Prices are firm.

Fruits and vegetables of all seasonable kinds are low.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco, Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life! In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing that they will in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from European and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of his complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtaining immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 252

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE, NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE, G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY, JOHN M HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER, ROB'T RAMSEY,

And others in that vicinity

Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan

What the Hon. W. T. Ballou says about the "King of Pain."

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7, 1869.

Dr. J. J. McBride—Having suffered with sciatic rheumatism some months, I was induced to use your "King of Pain." I take pleasure in recommending it to those afflicted with rheumatism. I know of several cases of neuralgia that have been cured by using it.

W. T. BALLOU, of Elko, Nevada.

Card from Harbor Master.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2, 1869.

To Dr. McBride—This is to certify that I have been troubled with neuralgia in my right arm and hand for the past three months, and although I have had medical advice, and tried a number of remedies none has relieved me until I tried Dr. McBride's "King of Pain," which has done me more good than all the other remedies I have tried.

DR. J. J. M'BRIDE,

TELLS YOUR DISEASE WITHOUT ASKING ANY QUESTIONS!

A CARD.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16, 1869.

DR. McBRIDE—My Dear Sir: For the last six or seven years I have been afflicted with rheumatic pains, from my knees down, embracing all the joints of ankle and toes. These pains have come upon me periodically every year, about this season of the year. My knees and ankles, and toe joints, and my wrists and finger joints would swell and leave me in the most agonizing pain, known only to those who have suffered from this dread malady. These pains would continue for a period of from three to four months every year, and they have been regular, unfailing annual visitors. I have been accustomed to apply for relief to the best citizens of San Francisco, and have not failed to use all the popular remedies known to the public. I would sometimes receive temporary relief, after long continued application, but it would never fail to return in a few days with increased severity.

About two weeks ago, while my pains were upon me, I saw you at the corner of one of our streets, and heard what you said about your "King of Pain." I confess that I listened to you with deep distrust; indeed, I may say that I did not believe your statements. "Still," thought I, "it's only a dollar, and I'll patronize the 'humbug' one dollar's worth." I bought a bottle and tried it first on my knee, which was fearfully swolen, and from which I suffered very severely. The second night I tried it again, and my dear Doctor, you can judge of my surprise, ecstacy and delight, altogether, when I found on rising the second morning, that my pains were entirely gone, and the swelling entirely disappeared. My knee joints were as supple as when I was young. I actually danced with delight, much to the amusement of my friends, who had been in the habit of regarding me as a decrepid old rheumatic. It has now been two weeks, and I have not felt the least symptom of return. I believe I am cured, and I feel so grateful to you that I offer you this statement, verified by my oath, to be used by you in whatever way you may think proper, and I feel it a duty to let others similarly afflicted know where they can find relief.

I am, yours, very truly, RAPHAEL LOOKAYSE.

State of California, city and county of San Francisco. On this 16th day of October, 1869, personally appeared before me, a Justice of the Peace in and for the city and county of San Francisco aforesaid, Raphael Lookayse, known to me to be the person who signed the foregoing letter, and who being by me duly sworn, deposes and says the contents thereof are true.

T. W. TALIAFERRO, Justice of the Peace.

TO THE PUBLIC,

Grateful for the eminent services of Dr. J. J. McBride, I cheerfully make a statement of the following facts: For twelve months I had suffered from prostration of my nervous system, resulting in partial paralysis and almost total loss of sight. A score of physicians had abandoned my case as hopelessly incurable; I had even heard my days numbered by doctors and friends. In the agonies of my neuralgia pain, I sought the great "King of Pain." Under that benign influence, in one-half hour I had obtained more medical aid than I had known for long, weary months. My sight was so much restored that I could read print, although I had needed a guide to find Dr. McBride's office an hour before. Before leaving him I had regained the use of my almost palsied limbs, and seemingly my strength had returned; while all those aches and pains, my constant companions, were dissipated and gone. It is now ten days since I undertook treatment with Dr. McBride, and I can say unhesitatingly that I am restored as I could not have expected to have been in so little time. My eyesight is most perfectly regained, my whole physical system corrected and I am in doubled health.

My residence is in Reading, [illegible] business at No. 6½ Cambridge street, in this city, where I will willingly vouch in person for the truth of the foregoing to any one interested.

THOS. T. GREENWOOD

P. S. I have done business in this city for twenty years. Thousands of citizens know me. T. T. G.
